

ADMINISTRATION AWARD

Nomination Form

Clubs and members are invited to submit a nomination for the Administration Award.

Nominee:

.....
Year of award

.....
name

Nominations should be accompanied by a submission outlining why the person merits this award.

Eligibility

Any member of Masters Swimming NSW.

Criteria

The Administration Award is for a year of outstanding contribution to club administration. This may include any area of administration - president, secretary, treasurer, race secretary, recorder, club captain etc or any combination of these. By nominating a club member for this award, you will recognise the contribution that your volunteers make towards your club.

Selection Process

The MSNSW Board will review the nominees and select the winner. Any person who is a nominee cannot participate in the selection process. The winner will be presented at the presentation luncheon following the Annual General Meeting with a perpetual trophy, and a replica to be retained.

Closing date for nominations is close of business at least 5 weeks prior to the scheduled date of the Annual General Meeting

Nominations are to be sent by post, fax or email to the address below.
